University of Toronto – FIFSW

Transforming the Field Education Landscape

Practicum Opportunity: Start – February 24, 2021

Description:

This is an exciting opportunity for the student to engage in a national multi-year project whose name says it all: Transforming the Field Education Landscape (TFEL). Key field education informants have been interviewed and transcriptions and analysis are underway. Your practicum will build on these components and consist of:

- Engaging with research partners and social work student in national meetings re Promising and Wise Practices in Field Education
- Continue with outstanding
  - interviews of key informants
  - interview transcriptions
  - data analysis
- Participate in Cross analysis
- Contribute to their related components of this project
- Potentially interviewing key informants

Supervisors: Eileen McKee, Marion Bogo

If you are interested in this practicum, please:

- submit a resume to the Practicum Office practicum.fsw@utoronto.ca by February 22.
- virtual interviews will be scheduled February 23.
- practicum commences February 24, or as soon as a student is selected.

Students registered with University of Toronto Accessibility Services may receive appropriate accommodations for practicum settings. To register: http://www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/as 455 Spadina Ave., Suite 400; 416-978-8060