Diversity and Equity in Social Work: Engaging the Learning Edge

Diversity, equity and inclusion are core to social work practice. This work requires practitioners to engage in ongoing learning and unlearning regarding specific issues of equity/ diversity and an ability to navigate across a spectrum of power/ privilege/marginalization issues, while maintaining and producing a positive learning edge and effective professional practice which can be hard to do well!

Attendance at this workshop is expected. Please sign up for ONE <https://advancedstandingequity.eventbrite.ca>
