

A one-day conference presented by the RBC Chair in Public and Economic Policy and the RBC Chair in Applied Social Work Research at the University of Toronto

Monday November 6th, 2017

8:30 am - 2:30 pm

George Ignatieff Theatre

Larkin Building, 15 Devonshire Place, University of Toronto

Open to the public | Free admission | Seating is limited

RBC CONFERENCE

The FinTech Revolution:

What's happening, what to expect,
and why is it important?

Speakers

Andreas Park

Associate Professor of Finance, University of Toronto
An Overview of the Canadian FinTech Landscape

Angelo Melino

RBC Chair in Economics and Public Policy and Professor of Economics, University of Toronto
FinTech and Changes to How We Pay for Stuff

David Wolfe

Co-Director, Innovation Policy Lab, Munk School of Global Affairs, and Professor of Political Science, University of Toronto Mississauga
The Evolving FinTech Ecosystem in the Context of the Greater Toronto Region

Grahame Johnson

Managing Director of the Bank's Funds Management and Banking Department (FBD), Bank of Canada
FinTech – Risks and Opportunities from the Bank of Canada's Perspective

To register, visit uoft.me/2017Conference email events.artsci@utoronto.ca or call 416.946.5937 before October 30th. If you require an accommodation due to disability, please contact us.

uoft.me/2017Conference

Organized by the Faculty of Arts & Science and the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO