

EMERGING ARTISTS STUDIO SESSIONS

RESPECT YOUR ELDERS MURAL

what

Presented by: The Good Neighbours' Club & Workman Arts

The Good Neighbours' Club and Workman Arts are calling interested male artist over 50 to enjoy studio workshops and collaborate on a Toronto StreetArts mural to be located at 170 Jarvis Street.

who

Participant Eligibility: members of the Good Neighbours' Club or currently residing in a shelter.

dates & location

June 13, 20 27, July 2, 9, 18 23, 30
12pm-4pm
651 Dufferin St

Two-way TTC fare, coffee, snack will be provided.

Interested participants may receive a City of Toronto Sidewalk Artist/Busking license free of charge.

contact

If interested in joining please contact project lead Marshal at 416 806 2422.

STUDIO SESSIONS WILL INCLUDE:

- 01
Opportunity to develop an emerging artistic practice and professional creative talents.
- 02
Collaboration on a large mural promoting the message "Respect Your Elders."
- 03
Workshops from professional artist providing instruction on different artistic techniques and processes.
- 04
Materials to develop artistic talents and create art works during each studio session.
- 05
Develop a piece to be displayed at the mural unveiling and in a gallery setting.