

Research Proposal Instructions:

Provide a document that demonstrates your academic abilities and potential in the form of a research proposal. The statement needs to be research oriented. It will include the following: a statement of an issue that would benefit from being researched (i.e. its significance); the focus of your proposed study and research questions; existing literature including empirical research and the specificity of your study; your theoretical framework; a methods strategy (design, sample, data collection and analysis); nature of anticipated findings and the overall contribution of your proposed study to social work knowledge and policy/practice, and a bibliography. This document is a central component in the evaluation of your application. It should be written in a scholarly fashion with adequate reference to the relevant research and theoretical literature within your area of study. Limit your statement to 10 pages, typed, double-spaced, not including references.

You will submit the Research Proposal from the Document Status web page that is accessible after you have confirmed payment of your application.
