Statement on the Acknowledgement of Traditional Land

“We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and most recently, the Mississaugas of the Credit River. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.”

This statement was developed in consultation with First Nations House and its Elders Circle, some scholars in the field, and senior University officials.

Ontario’s response to the COVID-19 pandemic continues to evolve. Changes will likely occur as the province and its municipalities adjust to new data about the virus. In these circumstances, please be advised that the manner of delivery of courses, co-curricular opportunities, programs, and services is subject to change, in accordance with university policies. The University thanks its students, faculty, and staff for their flexibility during these challenging times as we work together to maintain the standards of excellence that are the hallmark of the University.

About the Master of Social Work in Indigenous Trauma and Resiliency (MSW-ITR) Field of Study

The foundations for the MSW-ITR field of study are values of respect, honesty, kindness, humility, cooperation and belonging held by the Indigenous people of Turtle Island. The curriculum invites learners of all indigenous origins to identify and explore their ancestry, learning how to build on inherent knowledge and wisdom to inform their social work practice. Each learner will bring their gifts of humanity and healing to the program and learn how to integrate them with the wisdom of an Indigenous worldview, the latest neuroscience, knowledge of trauma and resiliency, and social work practice and ethics to contribute to a collective understanding of how to serve individuals, families and communities in the global context.

The MSW-ITR came from the vision of seven Indigenous women: Jane Middleton-Moz, Rebecca Martell, Sylvia Maracle, Kim Anderson, Suzy Goodleaf, JoAnn Kauffman and Maria Campbell. They had a dream of how community can change if trauma and healing practices were approached from a culture-based and community-driven lens. In the spring of 2011, the OFIFC and the Middleton-Moz Institute invited leaders in the fields of trauma, education, Indigenous spirituality, healing and leadership, and community intervention to form the Governing Council to envision the MSW-ITR Field of Study. The current MSW-ITR Governing Council includes: Jane Middleton-Moz, Sylvia Maracle, Suzy Goodleaf, Rebecca Martell and JoAnn Kauffman.

The MSW-ITR Partners

This field of study was launched in 2016 in partnership between the Ontario Federation of Indigenous Friendship Centres (OFIFC), the Middleton-Moz Institute, and the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work (FIFSW), University of Toronto.

Ontario Federation of Indigenous Friendship Centres (OFIFC)

Founded in 1971, the OFIFC works to support, advocate for, and build the capacity of member Friendship Centres across Ontario. Emerging from a nation-wide, grass-roots movement dating back to the 1950's, Friendship Centres are community hubs where Indigenous people living in towns, cities, and urban centres can access culturally-based and culturally-appropriate programs and services every day. Today, Friendship Centres are dynamic hubs of economic and social convergence that create space for Indigenous communities to thrive. Friendship Centres are idea incubators for young Indigenous people attaining their education and employment goals, they are sites of cultural resurgence for Indigenous families who want to raise their children to be proud of who they are, and they are safe havens for Indigenous community members requiring supports.

In Ontario more than 85 percent of Indigenous people live in urban communities. The OFIFC is the largest urban Indigenous service network in the province supporting this vibrant, diverse, and quickly growing population through programs and initiatives that span justice, health, family support, long-term care, healing and wellness, employment and training, education, research, and more.

Friendship Centres receive their mandate from their communities, and they are inclusive of all Indigenous people – First Nation, Status/Non-Status, Métis, Inuit, and those who self-identify as Indigenous from Turtle Island. Learn more about the work the OFIFC does to support Friendship Centres at www.ofifc.org.

Middelton-Moz Institute

The Middelton-Moz Institute addresses the effects of current, cumulative, generational and historical cultural trauma with individuals, families and communities. With 50 years of experience as a clinician and author, Jane Middelton-Moz has turned her focus in recent years to delivering community intervention as it is proving to be the most effective for working with people and communities struggling with tremendous grief and loss, suicides, sexual and physical abuse, abandonment and neglect, lateral violence, cumulative impacts of historical and generational trauma, and high drop out rates. She focuses on strength-based approaches to trauma-informed work in schools and communities and increasing recognition of resiliency. Learn more at www.middelton-mozinstitute.com

The Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work (FIFSW)

FIFSW at the University of Toronto was established in 1914 and is Canada's oldest school of social work. Distinguished by its commitment to academic and practice excellence, FIFSW is the top-ranked school of social work in Canada and one of the top two in the world. It is distinguished by its emphasis on the integration of research, theory and practice in both the classroom and practicum education, providing students with the knowledge and skills to work effectively with others in a complex and ever-changing world. FIFSW offers professional and academic programs of study, with a fully accredited Master of Social Work program and a Doctor of Philosophy program focusing on social work research, education and policy. Overview of the MSW-ITR Field of Study

Preamble

The MSW-ITR field of study is cohort-based program of study. This means that students entering the program together will take all of the same courses at the same time. The one exception is that students may schedule their practicum courses at different times during the program.

The required MSW-ITR curriculum contains three components: (1) in-person intensive courses held in Toronto, (2) online courses taken from the student's home community, and (3) practicum courses in various settings.

Program Requirements

1. Degree requirements are normally completed within two years. The maximum time limit for completing the MSW-ITR Field of Study degree requirements is three years from the date of first registration in the program. The program length is 6 sessions (two years) full-time. Typical registration sequence: Fall, Winter, Summer.
2. There are a total of 5 six-day intensive face-to-face courses held in Toronto; three in the first year, and two in the second year. Each six-day intensive course includes academic learning, experiential learning, and wellness evaluation and activities. Course assessments include self-evaluations and independent study assignments applying course content in the home community context. Each intensive course builds on previous intensive courses; therefore, in-person attendance at the intensive courses is mandatory. If you miss an intensive course, you cannot take the next one in sequence and will need to wait until it is offered the following year. Students are responsible for travel and accommodation costs during the intensive course weeks.
3. Each online course involves academic learning of the subject, extensive reading or audio learning of course material, chat room connection with fellow students and faculty, written assignments and/or oral or written tests (to be determined by the instructor). If an online course is missed or failed in a given year, students will not have the opportunity to take the course again until the following year.
4. The year 1 practicum (SWK 4516H), Indigenous Trauma and Resiliency Practicum is a requirement for all students without a BSW degree. It is a practicum in a community setting that facilitates integration of trauma-informed and evidence-based practice with Indigenous knowledges. The practicum hours must meet the 450-hour minimum.
5. The year 2 practicum (SWK 4703Y), MSW ITR Practicum III is 450 hours. (1) Students will complete 410 hours in a supervised practice setting in their own community (this can include a current work setting, if practicum criteria are met). (2) Students will also complete a community intervention with a supervisor, for which they will receive 40 hours credit upon submission of a successful evaluation. Students are responsible for travel and accommodation costs during the 40-hour community intervention.

6. All students complete 7 half-credit courses (3.5 FCEs) in the first year of the Two-Year Program, and 8 half-credit courses (4.0 FCEs) in the second year, which includes 450 contact hours in a practicum (1.0 FCEs). Students without a BSW degree also must complete SWK 4102H Social Policy and Social Welfare in the Canadian Context, and SWK 4516H Indigenous Trauma and Resiliency Practicum (450 hours) in year one of the Two-Year Program (1.0 FCEs). Students entering the program with a Bachelor of Social Work degree will be exempt from SWK 4102H and SWK 4516H.
7. Registration. Students are charged fees by Academic Session, not by course, until all program requirements are completed. Students are advised to take the courses in sequence as indicated in the course timetable. Courses taken out of sequence may need to be completed the following year, leading to additional tuition costs and delayed completion of the MSW program.
8. Students may contact the ITR Faculty Advisor for academic support. For other inquiries, students may contact the Coordinator, Indigenous Initiatives.
9. In the event that a student does not complete two or more required courses, or receives an FZ (inadequate) after repeating any course, normally steps will be taken by the Faculty to recommend the termination of the student's registration.

Enabling Your JOINid: For Incoming Year 1 Students

The JOINid is an identifier that University of Toronto applicants can use to log into certain websites, including ACORN (Accessible Campus Online Resource Network), the University’s online registration system. Applicants receive information about their JOINid approximately 3 to 5 days after submitting the online application for admission through an acknowledgement email from the University.

As an incoming, newly admitted student, you can use your assigned JOINid prior to receiving your TCard to access ACORN (www.acorn.utoronto.ca), where students go to register and enroll in their courses online before September.

In order to register and enroll in courses on ACORN, incoming students must enable their JOINid on the UTORid website: www.utorid.utoronto.ca/cgi-bin/utorid/enable.pl.

Setting Up Your TCard, UTORid and University of Toronto Email Account

Getting Your TCard

Your TCard is your identification for academic purposes. It includes your photo, UTORid, student number and a barcode. It provides access to services and facilities such as libraries, athletic facilities, exams, meal plans, online learning portal, printing services, and more.

Updates to accessing your T-Card remotely during Covid-19 (<https://tcard.utoronto.ca/>)

Students Starting In Fall 2021:

Under the “First Time Users” heading, you will find a hyperlink to activate your UTORid (www.utorid.utoronto.ca/cgi-bin/utorid/activate.pl). On this webpage, you are required to enter the UTORid as shown on your TCard and the Secret Activation Key that you received along with your TCard. Follow the instructions as indicated on the website to complete activation.

If you do not know your Secret Activation Key or need assistance activating your UTORid, please contact the Information Commons Help Desk at help.desk@utoronto.ca. Health and Dental Insurance for Graduate Students

The University of Toronto Graduate Students (UTGSU) Health and Dental Plan

The UTGSU Health and Dental Plan provides students with unique health benefits. The Plan was designed to provide many important services and cover expenses such as prescription drugs, health practitioners, medical equipment, travel health coverage, which are not covered by a basic health-care plan (i.e. OHIP) or the equivalent (such as UHIP for international students). For more information, visit <https://utgsu.ca/health-and-dental/benefits/>

University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP) for International Students

The University Health Insurance Plan is a mandatory health insurance plan for all international and exchange students enrolled in an Ontario university. UHIP helps to cover the cost of hospital and medical services for international and exchange students while they are in Canada. International and exchange students are automatically enrolled in UHIP, and the coverage charge will be listed on ACORN. Students can visit the UHIP website directly for more information: www.uhip.ca.

Curriculum Information

Course Enrolment

Students enrol in required online and intensive courses online through ACORN, the University's Accessible Campus Online Resource Network, at www.acorn.utoronto.ca. Students log in to ACORN using their UTORid and password. In addition to course registration and enrolment, students can also use ACORN to check fees and finances, academic history and transcript orders, and contact information.

NOTE: Year 2 Practicum must be added through a course add/drop form (Appendix 1). For more information see Practicum Course info.

Checking and/or Modifying Course Status

Students are responsible for the accuracy of their timetable through ACORN. Students may cancel or withdraw from individual courses by using ACORN, or by completing an Add/ Drop Course Form (see Appendix 1) without academic penalty up to the course withdrawal deadlines (see Important Sessional Dates for 2019-2020).

Withdrawing from a course without academic penalty means that you can drop the course either through ACORN or an Add/Drop Course Form, and have the course removed from your transcript record.

Snapshot of Required Curriculum

The MSW-ITR gradOUTLINE

The following page summarizes the course work and activities for the MSW-ITR field of study in a chart format called the MSW-ITR gradOUTLINE. The gradOUTLINE was developed in summer 2018, in collaboration with the School of Graduate Studies (SGS). The version on the next page includes specific dates for the 2020-2021 school calendar. Note that this year's calendar is subject to change, due to ongoing developments with COVID-19.

The MSW-ITR gradOUTLINE shows all Year 1 and Year 2 ITR course work and activities in chronological order, according to the curriculum sequence for the 2020-2021 academic year. Students may find the gradOUTLINE particularly helpful in identifying MSW-ITR milestones and reflecting on areas where further support may be needed.

- Fall and Winter enrolment options are available for SWK 4703Y. Please consult with the ITR Practicum Coordinator to set up your field placement.
- Students must complete the required 450 hours for SWK 4703Y: 410 hours in a field placement and 40 hours in a community intervention.

FIFSW Orientation and OFIFC Opening Ceremony

In years past, FIFSW has facilitated a full-day event on the Friday before the first intensive begins. Additionally, the OFIFC has hosted a Welcome Ceremony on the Saturday before the intensive begins. This year, due to ongoing COVID-19 restrictions, all orientation activities at FIFSW and OFIFC are being modified, while in person activities are preferred, we are adopting a hybrid mode to allow in person as well as remote participation.

This is a wonderful opportunity for the ITR students to attend the faculty-wide orientation sessions in addition to ITR-specific programming. The events will give you the chance to meet your colleagues from across FIFSW and hear from some of the amazing faculty members who work and teach here.

Below are all of the ONLINE opportunities available, to get to know the Faculty and program. Year 1 students will be receiving emails with additional information about each event.

August & September - MSW FIFSW-wide activities & events (Student Services will email details directly to students)

September 17 – MSW-ITR Orientation

September 18 – OFIFC Welcome

Planning for Intensive Course Weeks

Students are responsible for their own travel and accommodation during intensive course weeks. To offset some of the meal costs, the Faculty provides a light breakfast and lunch during intensive course weeks for MSW-ITR students.

Note: The Coordinator, Indigenous Initiatives will provide regular updates regarding options for participation in your intensives as COVID-19 restrictions evolve.

Financial Planning for Intensive Course Weeks

Students are encouraged to apply for the FIFSW Internal Award Opportunities (late September to early October of each academic year), Indspire, and other funding opportunities available through the School of Graduate Studies (SGS), and external provincial and federal government awards (OGS and SSHRC CGS-M). For more information on funding opportunities, refer to page 41.

Temporary Housing and Accommodations

Affordable temporary, short-term housing options affiliated with the University of Toronto are available on and nearby campus. For information on housing options around the University, you can visit the Housing website at www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/hs.

In addition, Victoria College also offered nearby, on-campus bed and breakfast services via the Burwash residence (<http://www.vicu.utoronto.ca/hospitality/resaccommodations/guesthouse.htm>). This housing option is located on 89 Charles Street West, about an 8-minute walk from the Faculty of Social Work, and also conveniently located next to the TTC, Toronto's public transit system. Please note that the availability of the Burwash Bed & Breakfast at Victoria College is very limited, and students are encouraged to arrange their booking as early as possible. The cost ranges from $70-$90/night plus tax. Interested students are required to fill out an application form and either fax or scan it (as indicated on the form). Any questions please email accom.victoria@utoronto.ca directly. Due to COVID19 the guest house is closed till further notice, students may check back regarding re-opening in 2022.

Students can also arrange their accommodations through other services, such as AirBnB and have had great success in doing so.

Online Courses on Quercus

Quercus is the University's learning management engine. Readings and Additional Resources will be posted on Quercus. Login at <http://q.utoronto.ca/> using your UTORid and password. Courses you are enrolled in will display in Quercus in alphabetical order by course name. Most course materials, organized week by week, will be accessed within each course. Grades can also be accessed and viewed on Quercus through the Grades Page within each course in which you are enrolled, if the instructor has enabled this feature. Official final grades are posted on ACORN.

Students may access the Student Quercus Guide at www.uoft.me/qstudents to familiarize themselves with the learning management engine. For further assistance, students may contact the University of Toronto St. George Help Desk at help.desk@utoronto.ca.

A great resource to introduce students to Quercus: Overview of Quercus for Students video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hduurl8xPOU&feature=youtu.be> (a four-minute video created by, and therefore branded, UofT Mississauga and posted on YouTube).

There is also a mobile app for students called Canvas Student to access Quercus. The Canvas Student mobile app allows students to conveniently access their courses and groups, review course content, and receive course communications on a mobile device. The app can be downloaded on the App Store for iPhones, or through GooglePlay.

For full instructions visit <https://q.utoronto.ca/courses/46670/pages/mobile-apps#canvas-student>

Course Evaluations

Student feedback matters. After each online and intensive course, students will be invited to provide feedback for each course. Course evaluations will be completed conveniently through an online system. Students will receive an email invitation at their mail.utoronto.ca email address that will direct them to the online course evaluation system. Course evaluations are very important for ensuring the quality of education at the Faculty and informing the development of its curriculum.

Please note that these course evaluations are different from the OFIFC program evaluation of the MSW-ITR field of study.

Practicum Courses

Overview and Purpose of the ITR Practicum

Practicum courses in the ITR field of study provide students with field education in direct and/or indirect social work practice in trauma-informed intervention, treatment and service delivery, with a focus on the connection between personal, cultural, professional, and academic development. In their practicum, students discern individual resiliency through values, ceremonies, and teaching of their cultural heritage.

The development of social work competence is the primary objective of the MSW program at FIFSW. Graduates, employers and educators credit field education as one of the most important elements of social work education programs. An experiential form of teaching and learning, social work competence is achieved through the provision and/or development of services to clients, communities, organizations or the larger society. Social service, education and health organizations voluntarily demonstrate their commitment to social work education by offering practicums where theory is integrated with practice, and social work competence can be developed.

The Practicum Office coordinates and supports the activities of the various stakeholders in order to ensure that FIFSW students have the opportunity to develop competence in social work.

Students are encouraged to become familiar with the Practicum Manual available online on the FIFSW website: www.socialwork.utoronto.ca/practicum/practicum-manual-2/.

Students can find MSW-ITR specific practicum information here:

<https://socialwork.utoronto.ca/practicum/for-students/indigenous-trauma-and-resiliency-practicum/>

Preparing for Practicum

The ITR Practicum Coordinator will contact each student one semester before their practicum is scheduled to begin.

Students may contact the ITR Practicum Coordinator to learn more about setting up and preparing for practicum at any point during their course of study, and are encouraged to think about the geographic area in which they plan to complete their practicum.

Practicum Matching Process

The ITR Practicum Coordinator will work with ITR students to find a field placement and field instructor who meets the ITR Field Instruction Standards (See <https://socialwork.utoronto.ca/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/ITR-Field-Instruction-Standards.pdf>).

When a practicum is approved and the student is matched, a customized schedule indicating major milestones, the Learning/Safety Checklist, and Workplace Safety and Insurance Board (WSIB) form will be emailed to the student, field instructor, and Faculty-Field Liaison (FFL).

For employment-based practicums, students and potential field instructors must submit an Employment-Based Practicum Application Form (see Appendix 2) to be considered for a practicum in a place of employment.

Practicum Course Enrolment Procedure

- Year 1 students who do not have a BSW degree must enrol in SWK 4516H (Year 1 ITR practicum course) for the summer session of first year, when course registration opens at the end of March. This course can be added online through ACORN.
- Students have the option of starting the year 2 practicum - SWK 4703 - in September (fall session of Year 2) or in January (winter session of Year 2). To register for SWK4703, students are required to submit a course add/drop form (see Appendix 1). This course cannot be added through ACORN.
- If students require an extension to complete their practicum hours, they must complete and submit the Extension to Complete Course Work Form.
 - PLEASE NOTE: Extensions requested by Year 2 students that extend beyond August 31, 2022 may have implications for convocation and student fees.

Faculty-Field Liaison

Once your practicum has been confirmed, you will be connected to a Faculty-Field Liaison (FFL). The FFL is the link between FIFSW, the student and the Field Instructor, and will offer support throughout the duration of your practicum. The FFL also:

- Receives the students' learning contract, and contributes to its development;
- Reviews the midterm and final evaluations and submits the course credit to the Practicum Office;
- Consults and supports the students and Field Instructor(s) if requested; and
- Selects and makes available educational resources upon request.

IMPORTANT PRACTICUM DOCUMENTS

Practicum Safety and Learning Checklist

Submission Due Date: Day 1 of Practicum

At the FIFSW, safety and learning have the highest priority. The Practicum Safety and Learning Checklist is emailed to the student, field instructor, and FFL after the approval and matching of the practicum placement. The checklist has been developed to assist the student and field instructor with key components to be covered as the practicum commences.

Once initialed and completed by the student and field instructor, the checklist must be returned to the Practicum Office at practicum.fsw@utoronto.ca on the first day of practicum.

The Practicum Safety and Learning Checklist is also available on the FIFSW website:
www.socialwork.utoronto.ca/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/Checklist-I-Practicum-Safety-and-Learning-May-2018-1.pdf

Learning Contract

Submission Due Date: Day 12 of Practicum

A learning contract is a document developed by the student and field instructor to focus and structure the practicum within a competency framework. It specifies what and how a student will learn within a given period of time.

The contract is completed by the student and field instructor, and emailed to the FFL. Students and field instructors are encouraged to review the evaluation rubric when developing the learning contract, available online at:

Direct Practice - <https://socialwork.utoronto.ca/wp-content/uploads/2014/06/Sample-Evaluation-Direct-Practice.pdf>

Indirect Practice: <https://socialwork.utoronto.ca/wp-content/uploads/2014/06/Sample-Evaluation-Indirect-Practice.pdf>

Information on the Learning Contract is available on the FIFSW website, in the Practicum Manual: www.socialwork.utoronto.ca/practicum/practicum-manual-2/overview-of-the-msw-program-and-practicum/#learningcontractsevaluation

Learning Contract Templates

Learning Contract templates are available online. The templates can be downloaded as Word documents directly from the website. Make sure you are working from the correct template based on your specific practicum (i.e: indirect practice of direct/mixed)

Access the template here:

<https://socialwork.utoronto.ca/practicum/for-students/forms/>

Practicum Evaluation and Grading

There are two practicum evaluations for every practicum course: one midterm evaluation and one final evaluation. Both midterm and final evaluations follow the same procedures, with the addition to the final evaluation of a written summary by the field instructor regarding the student's strengths, development during the practicum, continuing education, and employment supervision, etc.

The online practicum evaluation tool is integrated on the Practicum Administration System (PAS), the database used by the Practicum Office to monitor all practicums. The midterm and final evaluations are completed and submitted on the PAS. For reference, please see the evaluation rubric:

www.socialwork.utoronto.ca/wp-content/uploads/2014/06/Sample-Evaluation-Direct-Practice.pdf

Competency ratings are indicative of the student's demonstrated ability in this particular context. The ratings should be supplemented by written comments and an overall summary. The model should be individualized and applied in relation to the nature of practice assignments, the practice approaches in the agency, and the learning contract.

Preparation for the Evaluation

Several weeks before the evaluation is due, the student and field instructor should discuss the procedures, format, and content of the evaluation, clarifying expectations and respective responsibilities.

The field instructor and student each:

1. Review the learning contract, identifying any additional learning needs;
2. Review the social work practice competency behaviors and the rating scale;
3. Review the practice data / evidence which will be used in evaluation; and
4. Independently complete and submit a midterm and final evaluation on the PAS.

Midterm Evaluation and Final Evaluation Due Dates:

	SWK 4516H 450 hours in a field Placement Year 1 Non-BSW	SWK 4703Y 410 hours in a field placement Year 2
Midterm Evaluation	Day 32*	Day 29
Final Evaluation	Day 65*	Day 59
	*Based on an approximate 65-day practicum, with 7 hours per practicum day.	Based on an approximate 59-day practicum, with 7 hours per practicum day.

Grading

The practicum is a credit/no credit course. A credit (CR) is given when a student meets the competency expectations of the practicum.

A no credit (NCR) is given when a student does not meet the competency expectations of the practicum. A no credit (NCR) is the equivalent of a failure (FZ) grade in an academic course and is subject to the same regulations.

More information about grading for practicum courses is available in the Practicum Manual: <https://socialwork.utoronto.ca/practicum/practicum-manual-2/overview-of-the-msw-program-and-practicum/#evaluation>

Practicum Guidelines and Procedures

Students may refer to the Practicum Guidelines and Procedures for information on the following:

- Encrypting personal and confidential information

- Guidelines for resolution of problems in the practicum
- Procedures for dropping the practicum course
- FIFSW guidelines for students requesting reference letters

Link to the Practicum Guidelines and Procedures:

www.socialwork.utoronto.ca/practicum/practicum-manual-2/practicum-guidelines-and-procedures/#meetingcompetency

Making up for Lost Practicum Time

Students are responsible for making up for lost practicum time due to absence, in order to meet the minimum 450-hour requirement for SWK 4516H and SWK 4703Y. Students are advised to reach out to their field instructor, FFL, and/or the ITR Practicum Coordinator if assistance is required in scheduling practicum time to make up for lost hours.

If an absence is longer than 3 days, an Extension to Complete Course Work Form must be completed by the student and field instructor, and must be submitted to the Faculty Registrar. The approval and signature of the Associate Dean, Academic must be obtained before the course work extension request is sent to SGS for final approval.

If there are extenuating and/or disability-related circumstances causing longer-term absence from the practicum, students are advised to register with Accessibility Services for academic accommodations. See Appendix 5 for the Disability-Related Extension form.

40-HOUR COMMUNITY INTERVENTION

The 40-Hour Community Intervention is an opportunity for MSW-ITR students to gain additional experience in trauma-informed approaches. This could occur through information and skills training, supporting a healing process, conducting community-based research or contributing to policy enhancement and/or development.

Some examples of past 40-Hour Community Interventions include:

- Supporting a community healing intervention facilitated by a trauma-informed practitioner;
- Volunteering at a trauma-informed conference or gathering;
- Developing a trauma-informed resource for a community agency; and
- Supporting the facilitation of trauma-informed organizational training.

The ITR Practicum Coordinator will circulate information about opportunities for the 40-Hour Community Intervention as it becomes available.

If you have your own idea for a 40-Hour Community Intervention, get in touch with the ITR Practicum Coordinator to confirm eligibility of the opportunity.

Supervision

Any community intervention must be completed with the support of a supervisor and be approved by the Practicum Office. The supervisor does not need to be a social worker, but must be an experienced trauma-informed practitioner who can commit to overseeing your work, and providing support, guidance and practical help. They will also be required to submit an evaluation of your community intervention.

Timing

If you have your BSW, you must attend the first intensive week and then you can complete your 40-hour intervention at any point throughout your two years of study.

If you do not have your BSW, you must complete the first year of the two-year program before commencing your 40-hour community intervention.

Evaluation

The evaluation process for the 40-Hour Community Intervention is separate from the evaluation for your field placement.

The evaluation materials for the 40-hour community intervention can be accessed here:
<https://socialwork.utoronto.ca/wp-content/uploads/2018/09/Community-intervention-evaluation.pdf>

Your supervisor is to complete the first two pages, and the student completes the Self-Evaluation and Reflection form. Both should be submitted to the ITR Practicum Coordinator.

Once both the student and the supervisor have completed their portion of the evaluation, each section will be made available for review by both supervisor and student.

MSW-ITR Evaluation by the OFIFC

The Masters of Social Work – Indigenous Trauma and Resilience (MSW-ITR) evaluation was designed to address the overarching question: to what extent does the MSW-ITR program create meaningful change for students and their communities? In order to determine this, the OFIFC is utilizing the USAI Evaluation Path (2018). Rooted in Indigenous Knowledge, "The Path" illustrates the impact of a program in real-time. Through building in evaluative components from the onset of a new initiative, it incorporates a flexible approach that allows (and accounts for) contextual changes that may occur over time. In addition, this flexibility acts as a safeguard to help ensure that what is happening on the ground remains congruent with the original vision of an initiative.

Exploring to what extent the MSW-ITR field of study creates meaningful change is crucial to ensure that it is meeting student and community needs, and to ensure the long-term health and success of the MSW-ITR. Student insights at this early stage are invaluable.

Information gathered from evaluation activities will be used to inform the growth of the field of study to ensure alignment with student and community needs.

USAI Evaluation Path:

Utility – The Path focuses on usefulness.

Self-Voicing – The Path is explicitly value-laden.

Access – The Path is open to all.

Inter-Relationality – The Path runs through the intricate web of community relationships, connections, and interactions.

Schedule of Student Focus Groups

Due to COVID19, in-person focus groups will not be scheduled in the foreseeable future. Options for participation will include:

- One-on-one interviews;
- Online focus groups; and
- Participation in an online survey

Information about participating will be shared with students through the Coordinator, Indigenous Initiatives.

Community Case Studies

Following the completion of their first year, students will be formally invited to nominate community members to participate in a Community Case Study as an additional component of the evaluation. Both nomination for the case study (by students) and participation in the case study (by community members) is completely voluntary.

The Community Case Studies take place in the second year of study, so community members can reflect and assess the field of study's impact after some exposure. Ideally two to four community members will be engaged per student to gain a more in-depth understanding of the program's circle of influence.

The OFIFC Research Team will ideally work with two to four students per cohort. With the informed consent of the selected students and their community members, the OFIFC Research Team will be available to travel to students' communities to conduct interviews or focus groups to learn about the impact of the MSW-ITR field of study in the student's community.

Please note that the research questions are not intended to evaluate the performance of students in any way. Students participating in the case studies will be provided with the interview guide when asked to nominate community members. Any data that directly mentions or implicates individual students will not be used or shared.

As the OFIFC acknowledges gift-giving as an important traditional practice of reciprocity, honouraria will be provided to students and community members who participate in the case studies.

Student Participation in the MSW-ITR Evaluation

Ongoing student participation in the evaluation will serve to ensure that the program constantly improves and is responsive to its stated objectives. Through evaluation participation, students have the opportunity to be co-designers of the MSW-ITR and contribute to the educational experience and well-being of future cohorts.

Consent

Participation in this evaluation is entirely voluntary. Participants will be asked to sign a consent form that details their participation in the evaluation process. Participants may withdraw their participation at any time prior to the publication of findings.

Confidentiality

Each participant will be assigned a unique number. Data will be compiled using the participant's unique number to ensure that the information provided cannot be traced to individuals. Participants' personal information will be stored separately from the findings in accordance with OFIFC's policies on secure data management. Findings will be compiled into aggregate data to ensure that information can never be attributed to the participants in any way, including through the use of quotes. All evaluation reports and outputs will be based exclusively on aggregate data.

Curriculum Summary 2021-2022

Year 1 Curriculum 2021-2022
SWK 4101H Understanding Historical and Multigenerational Trauma	SWK 4101H looks at the transmission of trauma from cultural, communal, familial and individual perspectives. Students critically examine the impact of generational trauma on historical and current risk factors in communities and gain understanding of the importance of resiliency factors in preventing transmission of generational trauma.
SWK 4106H Social Work Ethics and Indigenous Communities	SWK 4106H provides an overview of social work ethics as defined by the Canadian Association for Social Work and their integration/intersection with indigenous ethical principles in the community context. The course will address practice ethics in both historical and contemporary contexts, drawing on examples from Canadian and international social work practice.
SWK 4102H* Social Policy and Social Welfare in the Canadian Context *Students with a BSW degree are exempted from taking this course.	SWK 4102H is a requirement for students without a BSW degree. It emphasizes knowledge of policy development directly related to the colonization of Indigenous peoples in Canada and contemporary policy processes related to the health, education, family life and welfare of Indigenous peoples, families and communities. Students will learn skills needed to analyze social policies and programs, and will gain critical awareness within and beyond indigenous communities. Attention will also be directed to experiences of Indigenous peoples worldwide and practices in other jurisdictions.
SWK 4902H Indigenous Perspectives on Grief, Loss and Unattended Sorrow	SWK 4902H summarizes the steps in healthy grief resolution and reviews and dispels common myths, attitudes and values that block the grief process. Specific symptomatology present in individuals, families and communities experiencing grief from sudden and violent death due to recurrent suicides/murders in communities will be presented as well as methods to assist families and communities in grief resolution.
SWK 4109H Trauma and Human Development	SWK 4109H explores the sequential development of the brain and how trauma impacts that development. Learners are provided with an overview of normal development from birth to adulthood as well as development impacted by complex trauma. Learners will be exposed to methods used with children and adults that can assist in trauma integration.
SWK 4110H Trauma and Addiction	SWK 4110H examines the developmental, neurological and familial roots of addictions. Learners explore factors that influence the development of an addicted brain, the biology of addiction and the trauma-addiction cycle. Students critically examine resiliency factors and strategies for prevention, intervention, and healing in individuals, families and communities, particularly in indigenous contexts.
SWK 4108H	SWK 4108H examines the dynamics of sexual abuse in the family and explores why abuse, if not healed, increases in subsequent generations. The

Year 1 Curriculum 2021-2022
Sexual Abuse, Sexual Assault and the Family	course also examines types and typologies of perpetrators of sexual assault and child sexual abuse as well as the aetiologies of sexually deviant behaviours. Learners explore strategies for assessment and treatment of offenders and victims of sexual violence.
SWK 4510H Research for Evidence-Based Social Work Practice	SWK 4510H provides a critical overview of the history of research conducted on and for indigenous peoples and to be a bridge between evidence-based social work practice (EBSWP) and indigenous research knowledges. The course will explore current and historical research from indigenous perspectives, including ethics, methodologies, protocols, and practices. By starting from well-defined research questions, learners will consider the various methods that may shed light on questions relevant to indigenous communities. While the course is not intended to provide intensive training in order to carry out research, the goal is to introduce learners to a variety of research strategies and tools to critically appraise research studies so that the learners will be able to contribute to indigenous research knowledge.
SWK 4516H* Indigenous Trauma and Resiliency Practicum (450 hours) *Students with a BSW degree are exempted from taking this course.	The MSW-ITR Practicum is a requirement for students without a BSW degree. This practicum emphasizes social work practice in a community and/or organizational setting, where global indigenous and/or trauma-informed perspectives can be applied to service provision or community-driven research. Students are assigned to an approved practicum site and field instructor.

Year 2 Curriculum 2021-2022
SWK 4901H Facilitating Training in Indigenous Communities	SWK 4901H prepares learners for the creation and execution of a three-hour workshop on a trauma-related topic. Learners study “participant driven training skills” and examine tips for creating a successful presentation from beginning through delivery. Learners explore group dynamics and skills for dealing with people with whom it can be difficult to work.
SWK 4903H Trauma-Informed Care, Organizations, Supervision and Leadership	Trauma-Informed Care, Organizations, Supervision and Leadership explores the foundations of trauma-informed care; the critical understanding of building trauma-informed organizations in order to provide mental, emotional, physical and cultural safety for those seeking counseling and health care; the characteristics of effective trauma-informed leadership; and the necessity of trauma-informed supervision, regular and critical incident debriefing and worker wellness.
SWK 4111H Trauma-Informed Schools, Community Intervention and the Healing Power of Ceremony	Trauma-Informed Schools, Community Intervention and the Healing Power of Ceremony explores the importance of early intervention with children experiencing complex trauma in schools and care giving systems and offers steps for effective trauma-informed and strength based community intervention from the first phone call to the completion of follow-up action plans with the community. Additionally, learners will explore the elements of ritual and ceremony, the moral values and principles embodied in each, as well as the ethical foundation of delivery and the responsibility of those conducting them. Significance will be paid to the importance that ceremony can play in assisting individuals, families and communities to heal from grief and trauma.

SWK 4904H Working with Couples and Families in Indigenous Context	SWK 4904H engages learners in a critical analysis of major theories/methods of family therapy in the context of indigeneity, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation and/or other identities and experiences. Learners use their knowledge and creativity to develop effective and culturally sensitive methods of assessing and treating families in their communities.
SWK 4905H Seeing the Need, Creating the Solution	SWK 4905H prepares learners to identify gaps in mental health service delivery and create solutions for unmet needs in indigenous communities in urban, rural and international environments. Students learn to identify barriers and strengths in communities and develop skills for leadership and program development of prevention and intervention services. Specific areas of need and intervention addressed include: grieving, suicide, family and community violence, addiction and drug use problems, and post-incarceration re-integration.
SWK 4703Y MSW-ITR Practicum III (450 hours consisting of a 410-hour direct practice placement and 40-hour community intervention)	In the Year Two MSW-ITR Practicum, learners undertake field placement in an area of trauma treatment or service delivery. The learner has the opportunity to apply the knowledge of theories, social work values and ethics and principles of trauma treatment presented in the classroom in working with individuals (children, youth, or adults), groups and families. Prerequisite: Having a BSW degree OR Completing all Year 1 ITR courses, including SWK 4102H and SWK 4516H.
SWK 4517H Indigenous and Participatory Research Methods	SWK 4517H draws on indigenous, anti-oppressive and critical theories as the context for emerging methodologies for respectful, culturally-appropriate and community-relevant research in indigenous and other contexts.

Social Work Code of Ethics and Academic Policies

Social Work Code of Ethics (Canadian Association of Social Workers)

In professional programs such as social work, professional behaviour and scholastic performance comprise academic standards. All schools of social work in Canada are expected to have policies requiring student compliance with the social work code of ethics. Students are advised in their letter of admission that they are expected to adhere to the Code of Ethics, both in the Faculty and in the field practicum.

To review the Code of Ethics and the Guidelines for Ethical Practice visit: www.casw-acts.ca/en/what-social-work/casw-code-ethics/guideline-ethical-practice

Freedom of Information and Privacy Act (FIPPA)

The University of Toronto respects the privacy of its students. Personal information that students provide to the University is collected pursuant to section 2(14) of the University of Toronto Act, 1971. It is collected for the purpose of administering admissions, registration, academic programs, university-related student activities, activities of student societies, safety, financial assistance and awards, graduation and university advancement, and reporting to government. At all times it will be protected in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Note that the University cannot identify students or forward students' personal information to others outside the University without the consent of students. For further information, please see: www.rosi.utoronto.ca/fippa.php.

Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters

In order to protect the integrity of the teaching, learning, and evaluation processes of the University, the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters is concerned with offences which faculty members and students may intentionally commit. See the SGS website for Academic Integrity Resources at: <https://www.academicintegrity.utoronto.ca/>

Code of Student Conduct

The University of Toronto Governing Council website contains the Code of Student Conduct document if students need information and clarification on the Code.

<https://governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/sites/default/files/import-files/ppjul0120024733.pdf>

Academic Integrity

Students in graduate studies are expected to commit to the highest standards of integrity, and to understand the importance of protecting and acknowledging intellectual property. It is assumed that they bring to their graduate studies a clear understanding of how to cite references appropriately, thereby avoiding plagiarism. Common examples of problematic academic practices that lead to consequences for plagiarism include:

- Copying and pasting from a source and providing a citation but forgetting to put quotation marks around the content;
- Using material from a source and making changes in specific words or sentence structure but not citing the original source; and
- Using ideas from a source without citing the original source.

Graduate students are understood to be capable of expressing ideas that are original and distinct from those of the sources to which they refer. The consequences for academic dishonesty are very high at the graduate level; suspected plagiarism is immediately reported to the Associate Dean's Office and referred to the School of Graduate Studies. Please take the time to review your work carefully to avoid these consequences.

Maintaining Good Standing

Students are required to remain in "good standing" in their graduate program and to make "satisfactory progress" toward the completion of degree requirements. Good standing is when the requirement of minimum grade performance in course work is maintained and degree requirements are successfully completed. Satisfactory progress refers to the speed and timeliness of progression through degree requirements. Eligibility for funding and registration in the program may be affected if the student does not remain in good standing or if the student does not make satisfactory progress, so it is important for students to meet with advisor(s) regularly and ask for feedback on their progress.

More information on the SGS website: <https://www.sgs.utoronto.ca/academic-progress/manage-your-program/maintaining-good-standing/>

Graduate Academic Appeals and Procedures

Graduate students registered in the School of Graduate Studies (SGS) may appeal substantive or procedural academic matters, including grades, evaluation of comprehensive examinations and other program requirements; decisions about the student's continuation in any program; or concerning any other decision with respect to the application of academic regulations and requirements to a student.

For detailed information on procedures around graduate academic appeals, please visit the SGS website at www.sgs.utoronto.ca/facultyandstaff/Pages/Graduate-Academic-Appeals.aspx. Students may also refer to Appendix 10 of this manual for Academic Appeals forms.

Accessibility and Academic Accommodation

Academic Accommodations

Accommodation is the process by which suitable arrangements are made for people with disabilities. Academic accommodations are provided when students experience disability-related barriers that impact the demonstration of their knowledge and skills. Accommodations are provided to level the playing field upon which students can establish their success.

An accommodation is any change that enables students with disabilities to participate equally in the environment and activities of classes, practicum placements, or university life in general. This includes making changes to course delivery, assessment methods, the types of resources provided, and physical access to an academic setting. It involves removing barriers of all kinds, including physical or architectural barriers, information or communication barriers, barriers caused by attitudes, and policies or practices that create barriers.

Accommodations are determined based on available information regarding disability-related functional limitations and related impact on academic work, as applied to the academic demands of a student's program. They are informed by:

- The student, in dialogue with their Accessibility Advisor
- Information from a student's healthcare practitioner
- Provincial best practices

For more details about academic accommodations at the University of Toronto, students are encouraged to visit the Student Life, Accessibility Services website:

www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/as/academic-accommodations.

Registration with Accessibility Services

If you have a disability (or believe you may have a disability) and experience difficulties that impact your learning in lectures, labs, tutorials, or practicum placements, we encourage you to register for academic accommodations through Accessibility Services.

To receive accommodations in time for the start of the Fall 2021 term, including practicum accommodations, you should register as soon as possible.

New or returning students need to submit a complete registration package by July 14, 2021 in order to be eligible to receive coursework-related academic accommodations for the beginning of the Fall term, barring exceptional circumstances.

Learn more about the full range of academic accommodations and how to register by reviewing the attachment or clicking the link below:

<https://www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/as/new-registration>

Information about how Accessibility Services is operating under COVID-19 related measures is available online: <https://www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/as/covid-19-updates>

Students are encouraged to register with Accessibility Services if they identify with any of the following disability categories and may require academic accommodations during the duration of their program:

- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
- Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Brain Injury or Concussion
- Chronic Health Issues (e.g. Bowel Diseases, Epilepsy, Migraines)
- Deaf / Hard of Hearing
- Learning Disability
- Mental Health (e.g. Anxiety, Depression, Schizophrenia, Eating Disorders, PTSD)
- Mobility / Functional Issues
- Low Vision / Legally Blind
- Temporary Issues (e.g. broken bones)

Intake Appointment following Registration

After submitting their registration package, students will be contacted by Accessibility Services administrative staff to set a date and time for a one-hour intake appointment with an Accessibility Advisor.

Of note, some students may work with an Advisor at the Central office rather than at FIFSW. This will be determined during the intake process and will depend on the needs of the student.

Financial Support for Disability-Related Services and Equipment

Students with permanent disabilities may receive funds through the Canada Student Grant for Persons with Permanent Disabilities as part of their OSAP funding. In addition, students may ask their Accessibility Advisor to help them complete a Bursary for Students with Disabilities (BSWD) to help fund disability-related services and equipment. Students are advised to discuss the BSWD with their Advisor as early in the term as possible.

Students receiving aid from another province or territory may contact their province or territory to learn more about the disability-related funding programs that may be available.

Students with disabilities may also be eligible for the SGS Accessibility Grant

<https://www.sgs.utoronto.ca/awards/sgs-accessibility-grant/>

Students should book an appointment with their Accessibility Advisor to discuss financial supports for students with disabilities.

On Location Accessibility Advisor for Professional Faculties North

As part of a broader initiative by the University, On Location Accessibility Advisors are placed in academic units throughout the St. George Campus. The goal is to help reduce barriers to accessing services and accommodations. The On Location Accessibility Advisor for Professional Faculties North & Woodsworth College is Hannah W. Jackson. Based in FIFSW, Hannah is the On Location Accessibility Advisor for students in Social Work, OISE, and Woodsworth College.

To make an appointment to see their assigned Advisor, students may contact Accessibility Services in person or via telephone or email. For privacy and confidentiality reasons, students will not be able to make appointments through the front desk within their academic division, and the Advisor's student meeting schedule will not be visible to staff at the academic site.

New in 2021 – Partnership between Health & Wellness and First Nations House

First Nations House is pleased to announce a new partnership to expand the outreach provided by Health & Wellness to the Indigenous student community:

Wacheeya (hello), my name is Honarine Scott. I am a Wellness Counsellor from Health and Wellness, which is in partnership with the First Nations House. I am from Fort Albany First Nation, which is a Omushkego Cree community within Omushkego aski (land) most known as northeastern Ontario. Many winters ago, I was a student in Toronto as well and I needed help to cope. I was fortunate to meet so many Anishnaabe and Cree Elders, traditional teachers and all-around great people who helped me understand that I am more than just a brain and body, I had a spirit too and I needed to care for all aspects of myself to be well and succeed. Now that I am a registered social worker, I am excited to offer you the support I learned in school as well as from the Indigenous teachers I had here in Toronto and beyond. Although counselling is a place to talk about hard feelings, it is also a place to laugh and to be supported as you navigate this huge community called University of Toronto. All students who identify as First Nations, Metis, Inuit and/or racialized Indigenous students are welcome. Unfortunately, due to covid, we may not see each other in person right away but you can always contact the Health and Wellness Clinic and they will connect you with me virtually. Starting in September, I will be at the First Nations House from Monday – Thursday and at the Health and Wellness Clinic on Fridays. I am looking forward to meeting you. 🐾

All full-time and part-time students can call Health & Wellness at 416-978-8030 (select option “5”) to book/reschedule an appointment with Honarine. Appointments are currently being conducted remotely.

Upon the reopening of First Nations House, Honarine will be available in her new office Mondays - Thursdays (Fridays at Health and Wellness). Please book appointment in advance. For more information regarding University of Toronto, Health & Wellness services, please visit <http://www.studentlife.utoronto.ca/hwc>

Navi
