

Unlocking Student Potential: 2021–22 Impact Report

Prepared for the FIFSW Alumni Association

The Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work has been a leader in fostering skilled, dedicated social workers for over 105 years. Scholarships and bursaries are essential to continue to attract excellent students and provide an elevated student experience. The remarkable commitment of FIFSW alumni to equity and accessibility is changing students' lives and preparing them to meet complex challenges.

We are pleased to present this report on the students who benefitted from the generosity of FIFSW alumni from May 1, 2021, to April 30, 2022. With supporters like you, we look forward to continuing to graduate social work professionals who are sought after by leading social work agencies, education and healthcare institutions, governments and corporations, across North America and around the globe. We are grateful for your enduring support.
