Explanation:

- I On a first examination, if there is more than one negative vote (or abstention), the examination is adjourned. On a reconvened examination, more than one negative vote (or abstention) constitutes a failure.
- II Following a judgement that the thesis with its defence is acceptable, then:
- (a) If every examiner, or every examiner bar one, considers the thesis acceptable in its present form, then the thesis is approved in its present form.
 - (b) otherwise, if every examiner or every examiner bar one considers the thesis acceptable in its present form, or with minor corrections, then the thesis is approved with minor corrections.
 - (c) otherwise, the thesis is approved with minor modifications.

See next page for DEFINITIONS

DEFINITIONS

Minor corrections involve typographical errors, errors in punctuation or problems in style; they must be correctable within one month.

The Supervisor will inform the Candidate of the necessary corrections and must certify in writing to the MSW Program Director that the corrections have been made.

Minor modifications are more than changes in style and less than major changes in the thesis. A typical example of a minor modification is clarification of textual material or the qualification of research findings or conclusions. Minor modifications must be feasibly completed within three months.

The Chair of the Examination Committee must appoint a supervising Subcommittee to be approved by the Examination Committee and a Convenor is thus designated.

The Convenor of the Subcommittee shall report with a brief written statement the necessary minor modifications preferably before the Examination Committee disperses, but as soon after the examination as possible and ensure that the Candidate, Supervisor, and MSW Program Director receives a copy of the statement.

The Convenor of the Subcommittee shall also within three months of the date of the examination report in writing to the MSW Program Director the state of completion of the required minor modifications.
