Dear Field Instructors and Students,
We invite you to a Zoom Session on...

Understanding microaggressions and their manifestations in the MSW practicum

Friday December 1, 2023. 12 noon to 1:30pm

We are delighted to invite you to a Zoom session Friday, December 1 from 12 noon to 1:30 pm on Understanding microaggressions and their manifestations in the MSW practicum, facilitated by Natasha Prashad from the University of Toronto's Anti-Racism and Cultural Diversity Office (ARCDO).

FISW's commitment to diversity and equity extends to all areas of the Faculty, including the field courses, and is aligned with the University of Toronto's commitment to Diversity, Equity and Excellence. The MSW Practicum experience encourages the development of healthy relationships between students and field instructors where inclusion is nurtured through critical dialogues that centers identity. It provides the opportunity for the student and field instructor to deepen their learning and engage in dialogue about power dynamics in their relationship with each other, with their clients and with the community at large. We have intentionally designed this session for students and their field instructors to attend together and continue the dialogue throughout the practicum.
